

The Atonement of Christ

Reverently ♩ = 88-96

1. We ached as Christ a - toned for__ us, so thank - ful each new day,
2. We greived as Christ was mocked by__ men, so glad He did not cease,
3. We hurt as Christ was cru - ci - fied, but cheer for what it meant,
4. We wept as Christ was laid to__ rest, but joy in His re - birth,

In glo - ry to the Fa - ther, He par - took and fin - ished true.__
In pow - er they shall see Him, com - ing in the clouds a - bove.__
In mer - cy He for - gave them all, they know not his true way.__
The res - ur - rec - tion and the life, though dead yet shall we live.__

May we in faith be strong like Him, and trust in God we__ pray,
May we each look to His re - turn, to live with Him in__ peace,
May we re - pent of all our sins, the rea - son He was__ sent,
May we o - bey and serve our Lord, and prove it while on__ earth,

And__ keep com - mand - ments and the laws, ex - act - ly and a - new.
And__ fo - cus on e - ter - nal life, and how He showed pure love.
And__ nour - ish soul and bod - y too, im - prov - ing eve - ry day.
And__ bow the knee in thanks to Him, for all that He did give.

Text: Dirk Whatcott
Music: Michael Whatcott

D&C 19:16-19; Matt. 26:64;
Luke 23:34; John 11:25

Copyright © 2019 Dirk and Michael Whatcott
This work may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.